

The Happy Camp Community Center proudly hosts this special series for young children (5 years and under) and their parents!

Music and Movement

with  Hollis Baldwin!

6 Tuesdays
1:00 - 2:00pm
February 19th to March 26th

Fun ways to help children learn self-regulation and love of music, singing & dancing!

In this parent-participation class, infants, toddlers and young children experience the power of music, the magic of movement, and the positive effects of child development while exploring rhythm, movement, percussion and singing.

About Hollis Baldwin...

Hollis Baldwin is a trained musician with a background in classical and folk music from around the world. She loves how music builds pathways to better learning in children and is enthusiastic to bring her experience to the children of Happy Camp.

These classes are for young children and their parent/guardian ~ free of charge!
