

Nurturing Parenting

for Parents and their School-Age Children

Ages 5 to 11 Years

Co-Facilitators:

Cathy Scott
and Cerelia Barbato

In this fun and interactive special parenting program, parents will learn helpful parenting tips and more about understanding the needs of school-age children, how to respond to challenging situations, have engaging discussions and improved communications.

Children from 5 to 11 years old will meet with Cathy Scott to learn about how to deal with anger, bullying, and helpful behaviors while parents meet with Cerelia Barbato for the parenting skills building.

Child care is provided for preschool and younger children.

About the Co-Facilitators:

Cathy Scott is an experienced and passionate early childhood professional with 30 years experience working as a Head Start teacher. She is committed to recognizing and supporting the important role of parents as their child's primary educator and most important teacher. She is currently the Local Child Care Planning Council Coordinator and a Mentor/Coach for the Quality Counts Siskiyou QRIS program.

Cerelia Barbato (aka C.C.) holds a Master of Education degree in Special Education with professional experience as a Facilitator and Teacher. She is passionate about working with children and families!
