

SOCIAL/EMOTIONAL LEARNING

This special event is for parents, teachers, and anyone with children in their lives.

Learn simple ways to support a child's experience, expression, and management of emotions and the ability to establish positive and rewarding relationships with others.

with Georgia Conroy

Join Georgia Conroy for a discussion about how to help children learn about feelings and emotions and improve their ability to identify their feelings and those of others--- and strategies to manage them in a positive way.

To register, please call the HUB Communities Family Resource Center at 459-3481.
