

Nurturing Parenting

for Parents and their School-Age Children

Ages 5 to 11 Years

Location: Dunsmuir CRC
5840 Dunsmuir Avenue, Suite A, Dunsmuir

Dinner and child care are provided!

Facilitators:

Thaen Saelee, Psy. D.
and
Chrissy Montgomery

In this fun and interactive special parenting program, parents will learn helpful parenting tips and more about understanding the needs of school-age children, how to respond to challenging situations, have engaging discussions and improved communications.

Children from 5 to 11 years old will meet with Chrissy Montgomery to learn about how to deal with anger, bullying, and helpful behaviors while parents meet with Dr. Thaen Saelee for the parenting skills-building.

Child care is provided for preschool and younger children.

About the Facilitators:

Thaen Saelee, Psy. D., has extensive experience in providing therapy, assessments, rehabilitation services, psychological testing and evaluations, and psycho-education to children, adults, and families. Her clinical focus is in trauma, and how it affects individual development and behavior.

Chrissy Montgomery recently earned a Baccalaureate degree, with highest honors, from Simpson University in Organizational Leadership and describes herself as “a local girl with a focus on community development”. She currently facilitates Girls Circle for the elementary, middle and high school age groups, and Play Groups at the Dunsmuir CRC. She is passionate about working with children and families!
