

Parenting ~

The Second Time Around

Facilitated by
Gloria Endres

Tuesdays 📅 October 29th - December 17th, 2019 | 10:00 - Noon

Location: Mt. Shasta Community Resource Center, 109 E. Lake Street, Mt. Shasta

To register for this FREE 8-week series, please call 926-1400.

Enrollment will close after the first class.

Light breakfast and child care will be provided at each class!

This class is a national award-winning 8-week program, developed by Cornell Cooperative Extension, designed specifically to meet the needs of grandparents, relatives and other caregivers who are parenting children.

TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Basic parenting principles and practices that really work
- Legal information to keep your family safe and stable
- How to identify problem behaviors
- Why children think and act the way they do
- Positive discipline and guidance

About Our Facilitator ~

Gloria Endres, MSW, has extensive professional experience as a Social Worker and is passionate about working with children and families in the areas of adoption, foster care, grandparents raising grandchildren, and the aging.

