Parenting From Fear to Love: Based on his best-selling adoption and foster care book this presentation gives an overview of the The Stress Model Theory and explains how it can be applied to the most severe behaviors. After providing a thorough bodymind explanation for how stress and trauma impact behavior Bryan will give specific techniques or how to deal with problem behaviors.

Benefits of attending:
- Learn how early life experiences shape your child's emotions and behaviors.
- Discover the single biggest cause to all severe behaviors.
- Understand the impact of trauma on the brain and relationships.
- Explore the three pathways of communication that when suppressed cause bigger issues.
- Learn specific strategies for dealing with lying, stealing, defiance and more.
- Implement a three step technique that will lessen defiance and improve family relationships.
- Discover how to restore healing in your family by following this one daily practice.
