PROTECT OUR CHILDREN

All youth deserve to be safeguarded from predators and trauma. Join us in learning more from Deena Graves, PhD, about how to teach your youth the tricks, traps, and lures of predators and how to cope when they feel anxious or afraid.

Facilitated by

Dr. Deena Graves

Deena Graves, DPS, is founder of Traffick911, a Dallas-based anti-trafficking nonprofit and has received national recognition for her copyrighted Traps of a Trafficker© youth prevention-and-identification program and other groundbreaking work. She has a doctorate in Strategic Foresight, and is President and Director of M3 Transformations, Inc., where her team designs solutions for those who serve the at-risk and victimized.. She is an international award-winning communicator, who uses her expertise to give a voice to children whose voice and hope have been stripped away by those preying upon them for their own pleasure and profit.
