Derek Clark inspires listeners to have the mental strength to overcome adversity and fear. His purpose is to cultivate drive, focus, and the courage to take action. He spent 13 years in the Alameda County foster care system and in his presentations he reveals how he overcame his adversities and hardships — and how he triumphed in his personal life. Derek believes that music is one of the purest ways to touch and communicate with others — his music and message ignites passion and courage and he inspires and teaches us to push ourselves beyond our perceived limits, to take responsibility for the direction of our lives, and to Never Give Up!
